

In the Board's 2006 state legislative program the need for lottery funds to be used to provide incentives to recruit and retain young people into the teaching profession; and directed staff to explore expansion of tax credits that could benefit teachers seeking employment in Miami-Dade County Public Schools, and seek corporate partnerships that would facilitate the housing needs of newly-hired teachers.