STAKEHOLDERS

The Big Blue & You (BB&Y) is a youth-led organization that provides a global platform for today's young leaders to creatively express themselves and inspire others to live a fully ocean- loving lifestyle.

Founded in 2008, BB&Y is a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to inspiring and educating young people about ocean conservation using ART & MEDIA. ArtSea is their signature event where students and their families create ocean conservation-themed art at various seaside destinations.

The youth executive board is a team of talented high school and college students serving as the new generation of ocean leaders. Locations include New York City, Miami, Ft. Lauderdale, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Students provide guidance and they assist in making key decisions for the BB&Y organization which empowers their peers to help heal our oceans. Each member leads their own annual service project.

BB&Y is focused on educating and empowering our youth about ocean conservation using art and media. The organization is hosting their 5th annual ArtSea Festival on Saturday, April 23, 2016 at Historic Virginia Key Beach Park.
